Re: CRPS Administrative Announcements

Canadian Rockies Public Schools is pleased to announce the following leadership appointments.

Ms. Nadine Dack-Doi, ESA Coordinator

Canadian Rockies School Division is pleased to announce that Ms. Nadine Dack-Doi has accepted the position of Coordinator for the Education Service Agreement with Stoney Education Authority for the 2022-2023 school year. Nadine is excited to inspire the hearts and minds of all students through the lens of diversity, nature, well-being and Indigenous way of knowing and learning.

Nadine's experience and the relationships she has built over the years with our Indigenous families will be of great value in this new position. Join me in welcoming Nadine to her new role.

Ms. Jody Keon, Principal - Exshaw School

Canadian Rockies School Division is pleased to announce that Ms. Jody Keon has accepted the position of principal at Exshaw School.

Jody holds a Masters in Education from the University of Calgary. Over the last 18 years, Jody has gained valuable experience in Canadian Rockies Public Schools, teaching at Banff Elementary School (BES), Lawrence Grassi Middle School (LGMS), Elizabeth Rummel School (ERS) and Exshaw School (EXS).

For the past two years, she has been assistant principal and (ELL/FSL) teacher at Banff Elementary School. Jody loved her time at BES. She is, however, delighted to return to Exshaw School where she had spent over 12 transformative years learning from her students' culture and traditions. Jody's student-centered approach and caring attitude will continue to benefit students, families and staff of Exshaw School.

Ms. Jennifer Beecroft—Assistant Principal, Banff Elementary School

Canadian Rockies School Division is pleased to announce that Ms. Jennifer Beecroft has accepted the position of assistant principal at Banff Elementary School. This is in addition to her teacher role at BES.

Jennifer holds a B.Ed from the University of Saskatchewan and has been an educator with Canadian Rockies Public Schools since 1999. During this time, Jennifer has been a classroom teacher, an ELL teacher and for the past five years, the reading specialist at BES. Jennifer has been fascinated by her recent work in learning more about how children develop as readers and writers and how emerging readers can be best supported.

In her spare time, Jennifer enjoys hiking cross country skiing, and biking, as well as spending time with her family.
